Haliburton shares bonanza of free frozen food

Hundreds of people in Haliburton and surrounding area shared in the

Timothy Harrison

Minden youth dies in Toronto after head injury in game

Timothy Harold Harrison, age 15, son of Mr and Mrs Norm Harrison Jr. of Minden passed away early on Wednesday morning, March 26, at the Toronto General Hospital as the result of a head injury sustained during a hockey game played the previous evening in Minden.

The late Tim Harrison was refereeing an exhibition hockey game at the Minden arena between Minden Rotary and the Ministry of Natural Resources, when he was struck in the head by a puck about 9:30 p.m.

During the late minutes of the second period Aubrey Gostlin playing for the Natural Resources team came from behind his net and in an effort to clear the puck out of his own end back handed a light shot that accidentally hit Tim Harrison on the head as he was jumping down from the boards.

He finished refereeing the period and then went home complaining of pain, and when his mother, an RN, realized the pain was getting worse she took him to the Minden Red Cross Hospital. He was transferred from there to the Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay and later to the Toronto General Hospital.

Police are not certain whether an inquest might be held into the cause of the death.

Funeral Service was held in Minden on Thursday, March 27.

Norman Cooper, director of Kawartha Youth Incorporated stated last week that the Salvation Army in Haliburton is to be commended for undertaking the distribution of a truckload of frozen foods in the Highland community as a goodwill project in co-operation with McCain Frozen Foods and Kawartha Youth Incorporated.

Application to the Ontario Ministry of Community and Social Services to share in the distribution of the free food was made when it was learned that a disastrous fire in New Brunswick had left the company without adequate warehousing and resulted in the giving away of vast quantities of frozen foods to recognized agencies.

Included in the lot were frozen pies, peaches, vegetables and french fries, 15 tons in all which arrived in Haliburton via Hume's Refrigerated Transport last Thursday.

On icy road

Vehicles collide at intersection

Damage was estimated at $1,600. to two vehicles due to a collision that took place on the Bethel Church Road on March 29 at 6:45 p.m.

A vehicle driven by Peter L. Burk, 19, of 415-29 Upper Canada, Willowdale was westbound on the Bethel Church Road and a vehicle driven by Murray R. Crawford, 20, of 27 Durham Street Ajax was eastbound on the same road.

The Crawford vehicle was about to go left onto the Blairhampton Road. Due to the icy conditions the vehicle failed to stop colliding in the intersection.

Kathy Warren, 18, of Willowdale, a passenger in the Burk Vehicle was treated for cuts and bruises. Sharon Desches, 16, of Jane Street in Toronto and Maryann Anderson, 19, of Kinmount, Ontario both passengers in the Crawford vehicle were also treated for cuts and bruises.

Constable B.J. Connelly of the Minden Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police investigated.

Pirates approaching

During the last week of April the stage of H.H.S.S. will be taken over by a dangerous band of pirates - "the famous Pirates of Penzance"! But these "pirates" won't be after your lives or your treasures (except the admission price). However, they would very much like your attendance and support. Their only aim will be to assist you in having an enjoyable evening of light-hearted music and comic drama.

This year's "Pirates of Penzance" will be the seventh annual operetta to be presented by the H.H.S.S. Glee Club under the direction of Mr Bill Gliddon. These productions have consistently received excellent reviews from an enthusiastic and growing audience, which has come to regard them as annual highlights of Haliburton County's musical culture.

Plan now to attend one or more of the performances of "The Pirates". See the Coming Events section for details.

Injured in the accident were the driver who received cuts and bruises and three other passengers. Brian McDuffee, 21, of Hamilton, complaint of pain; Linda Jones, 23, of Hamilton, cuts and bruises; and Ann Rankin, 19, of Hamilton, cuts and bruises.

Constable W.A. Bibby of the Minden Detachment of the O.P.P. investigated.

Damage estimated at $3,500

Damage was estimated at $3,500. to a vehicle driven by Kerry Jones, 26, of 80 West 3rd Street, Hamilton which was westbound on the County Road #1 (just west of Carnarvon) on Sunday, March 30 at 2:30 p.m.

The vehicle failed to negotiate a curve, travelled down a ravine, rolled over, and came to rest in the south ditch.

The region's first brick and stone masonry apprentice classes are being offered in Peterborough through the McDonnell Street Campus of Sir Sandford Fleming College, in addition to the in-school portion of electrical, hairdressing, general carpentry, and marine and small powered equipment apprenticeships. He is the Rotary International Director for Canada, The Rev. Bob McLure, former Moderator of the United Church of Canada, Mr. M. Eugene Nesmith, Vice-President of the Bank of Montreal, Members of both the Minden and Haliburton Rotary Clubs will be attending this conference.

The Ministry of Housing will conduct a survey to determine the need and demand for senior citizen housing in the Minden area. A research analyst from the Ministry of Housing, the Ontario Government's housing agency, will estimate the number of senior citizens living in the Minden area whose housing is inadequate or beyond their financial capabilities. The study which commenced March 17 was requested by the Council of the Townships of Anson, Hindon and Minden.

Over sixty people attended the tenth Sunday afternoon recital in the Academy Theatre reception room last Sunday and enjoyed an excellent and varied musical program.

Mr John Rouble, principal of the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School and a member of the Rotary Club of Haliburton presented a film on the Ironworkers at a recent meeting of the Rotary Club of Haliburton. A large number of the Ironworkers are from Indian descent mostly from the Mohawk and Six nation communities, the film gave a history of the Indians involvement in this type of work and showed the degree of skill and nerve required to perform this task. John gave a short talk of his own work with the ironworkers and some interesting insights on bridge construction.

We are now into April and thank goodness for that. The month of March just past gave us every kind of weather with plenty of cold spells to boot.

Along the Trails

By Roy Bates

On our way from Haliburton to the HCSA ride-in at Redstone, March 23, our group of four chose a route via West Guilford, Coleman Lake. We were pleasantly surprised to discover a good trail, well marked by local snowmobilers, running from a crossing of the Kennis Lake Road to Coleman Lake and Redstone. We commend the people who developed the trail for it is evident that a great deal of volunteer effort went into it. We suggest that West Guilford riders choose a responsible representative to meet with the Association's trail committee so that this trail, and others in the area, may be considered for widening to HCSA standards and groomed next season. The HCSA would be pleased to meet representatives from ALL sectors for this purpose.

The rain and freezing rain of Saturday, the 22nd, seems to have effected the turn-out for the rally. About sixty riders showed up to partake of the free coffee and hot chocolate dispensed by Ken Fielding and his lovely wife.

With cooler, dryer weather, Sunday's riding conditions were very good, and have stayed good all week. Good Friday was one of the best days for snowmobiling we have seen all season. Of course all roads are now bare of snow, pointing up once again the need for a continuing effort to develop off-road facilities to replace all road links in our trails system.

It is, now, possible to ride quite long distances in most areas without using roads, but your choice of routes is limited. For example, I can travel to Fourcorner Lake by way of the Peterson, but the logical return route, the Kennaway and Tractor Road, is impractical because of bare sections.

Lake conditions were very good throughout March, but with less ice on them this year they will likely deteriorate rapidly. If you must venture on them, give all inlets and outlets a wide berth and stay out of narrows. Beaver ponds can become very treacherous at this time of year, particularly those with active colonies. Don't be foolhardy.

A recent report states that snowmobile fatalities in Ontario are down by 52 percent from last year. Obviously the new legislation has kept us off the highways and made us more safety conscious. With more and better trails becoming available to us we should see a further reduction of accidents next year. Let us keep our County off the statistics sheets. We seem to have succeeded this season.

A delegation of HCSA directors were given a demonstration of the "Bombi" used by the Ministry of Natural Resources at Gooderham. They were quite impressed with the machine, its power and ease of handling. The grooming device was the same trail grader used by the Association with its Alpines. It works more efficiently with the powerful Bombi, but still leaves something to be desired. High moguls may be reduced to a shallow wave but not entirely eliminated. Carl Cowden, of Snoplan, assures us that a new drag, designed to match the Bombi, will be available next season. I implore all snowmobilers to support HCSA fund-raising schemes so that we may acquire one, two, or three Bombi trail units. Until something better comes along, it is THE machine for Haliburton trails.

Haliburton Midgets advance to finals

Home ice once again played a big part in the semi-final series our Haliburton Midgets completed against Oro. The boys were unable to wind up the series in Oro last Thursday, but didn't disappoint the crowd that came out Saturday in Haliburton.

In Oro on Thursday our boys actually had at least twice as many supporters in the stands as Oro did, but it didn't seem to help. For two periods they gave the fans nothing to cheer about. Their passes were not clicking, the checking was non-existent and their shots were either off the net or in the goalies pads. Only the excellent goal tending of Dale LaPorte kept them in the game, with Oro scoring twice in the first and no scoring in the second period. We can only guess what took place in the dressing room before the third period to turn the tide. Haliburton came out like gangbusters really put on the pressure. Just short of the four-minute mark Jay Wootton picked up a pass from Mark McDuff and got Haliburton on the scoreboard. Haliburton continued to test the Oro goalie with hard shots and Tim Bain finally got the equalizer with four-and-a-half minutes remaining. Excitement continued to build as they worked harder and harder to get the go-ahead goal but instead it went to Oro with only 38 seconds remaining in the game. One period of good hockey out of three just wasn't enough. Final score Oro 3, Haliburton 2.

Back home on Saturday the team played to almost a full-house. Initial enthusiasm turned to concern when Corey Riley was assessed a five-minute high sticking penalty when the game was only one-minute old. However, the boys not only held them off, but Tim Bain scored the opening goal while shorthanded. Oro did come back with a power play goal at 9:20 while Mike Scheffe was in the penalty box, and pulled ahead with another goal only a minute later.

Oro was given a five-minute penalty for high sticking, and Haliburton was quick to take advantage with two quick goals, one by Corey Riley, and one by Derwyn Barry. Oro opened the scoring in the second to tie up the game for the second time. The Oro goalie was then given a five-minute high sticking penalty and Haliburton once again jumped on the chance to pull ahead, this time with three goals, two by Joe Roberts, and one by Tim Bain.

A minute later Corey Riley set up Mark MacDuff with a break-away pass which he neatly tucked behind the Oro goalie. Joe Roberts picked off an Oro pass and went in on a breakaway moments later and slipped this one between the goalie's pads. With the game well in hand the third penalty got a little sloppy and many penalties were handed to both teams. Oro got the only goal in the period to finish the scoring at Haliburton 8, Oro 4.

Haliburton has now eliminated Oro three games to one and Caledon in the meantime has eliminated Lukin by the same margin. Haliburton now plays Caledon in a best of seven series for the All-Ontario "D" Championship, but at press time playing dates are not available. The team will welcome Greg Bishop back who has been away on holidays, but is concerned also about being short a few players. Joe Iles goes to hospital this week for an operation on a broken nose sustained earlier in the season, and Joe Roberts and Jim Thompson were both hurt Saturday, but hopefully can return to action in the finals.

competition the foursome of Art Owens, Bernice Owens, Ken Gardiner and John Byne of Kinmount took top honors and received an attractive trophy from the President of the Kinmount Legion, Albert Crego, for their fine effort.

Placing second was the team from Cannington, with No. 2 team from Br 67 Lindsay taking third spot.

Brant and Brent Acreman teamed up to take first place in the doubles for Omemee. Roy Crawford and Bill Acreman, Omemee, placed second, Doug Worrall and Bill Dermedy Br 67 Lindsay came third.

Kinmount wins

In singles for the day, Doug Worrall came first with Colleen Boots placing second. This pair were representing Br 67 Lindsay.

High score for the tournament: John Byne of Kinmount with 140. Congratulations to Albert Crego, president of the host branch for a very successful tournament, and to the Ladies' Auxiliary for the hot meals and sandwiches provided for the players throughout the afternoon.

Paving contract

Victoria - Haliburton MPP, R. Glen Hodgson announced last week the awarding of a paving contract on Highway 35 in the Huntsville area.

The release from the Ministry of Transportation and Communications advised that the Brennan Paving Company of Hamilton, Ontario, has been awarded contract No. 74-184 for hot mix paving of Highway 35 from 0.2 miles north of the north junction of Highway 121, northerly for 6.9 miles.

The contractor's tender for the contract is $215,778 and the work is scheduled to get under way May 26.

Atom all-stars in finals

The Haliburton Atom All Stars start the finals with Sunderland this week playing Tuesday in Sunderland and in Haliburton on Friday at 7 pm.

The boys have enjoyed a good year of hockey and are hoping to win the finals against the high-scoring Sunderland team.

The Atoms played the year against Minden and Fenelon Falls finishing second to Fenelon Falls in the final standings. In the playoffs, Haliburton played against Minden in a best of seven.

Minden took the first game on Haliburton's ice by a score of 4 to 3. The next game went into overtime before Haliburton won the next three games proved to be very close with Haliburton edging Minden in each of them.

Haliburton has been idle

now for a couple of weeks waiting for a winner in the other group. We hope that the layoff has not hurt the boys too much. The Atoms seek your support for their home game this Friday night at 7 o'clock.

Report from Parliament by William Scott

On April 9th the Canadian people will observe the fifty-eighth anniversary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge, one of the most glorious chapters in our country's military history.

At 5:30 a.m. on that April morning in 1917, an initial assault wave of 15,000 Canadian troops leaped out of their trenches and struggled through the barbed wire, clinging mud and enemy shells towards the German defences.

This battle would end a stalemate that had existed in the Vimy Ridge sector since 1914, when the Germans first occupied the area. The battle would involve 97,000 troops from the crack Canadian Corps before it was over, and it would also mark the coming age of the Canadian nation.

Until the battle of Vimy Ridge, the Canadian Corps had been commanded by a British general. The Corps was led into the Vimy Ridge engagement by General Sir Julian Byng, a brave and distinguished soldier who in 1921 was appointed Governor General of Canada.

the Canadian Corps. They lost 3,598 killed in action, and more than 7,000 wounded. Many of the wounded died later of their wounds, and many more lived out their lives in our hospitals.

The Corps captured 4,000 German prisoners, hundreds of guns, and tons of supplies. No record is available of the Germans killed and wounded, but it was apparent that they never fully recovered from the shock of the beating they suffered in that historic battle.

Four Canadians were awarded the Victoria Cross for Valour in the battle. They were Private William Milne, Captain Thain W. MacDowell, Lance Sergeant Ellis W. Sifton, and Private John G. Pattison.

Sifton died in action in the first day of battle, as did Milne. Pattison died in action in another battle, two months later, while MacDowell returned to Canada after the war and worked for a time as secretary to the Minister of National Defence. He died in 1960.

There were many other battles in World War One that were bigger, and which took a greater toll in killed and wounded on both sides. However, no other battle received the acclaim that was accorded to Vimy Ridge.

The battle gave a shot in the arm to the allied armies, whose morale was sagging badly. It also served to boost the spirits of those Canadians back home who were beginning to wonder if the war would ever end. Vimy Ridge seemed to signify that the war would end soon, and that we would win.

Whatever else might be said of Vimy Ridge, it can be summed up very well by a statement issued by the French government after the Battle. It said that Vimy Ridge was Canada's Easter Gift to the French nation.

Gas prices too high in Haliburton County

The question of the price of a gallon of gas seems to be the topic for discussion around Haliburton and surrounding areas these days.

A great many people who live here find it hard to understand why we have to pay more for a gallon of gasoline here in Haliburton County than in practically any other place in Ontario. Some people have told us that after you leave the county the price of gas is a lot cheaper in practically every station right into Toronto.

Where does the trouble lie. Could it be that the big gas companies are subsidizing these stations everywhere else or is it a case that competition in other centres has forced the price of gas down.

It all boils down to this. The motorist here is paying too much for his gasoline and they all know it. If these prices don't come down in the near future local gas operators are going to find that the people will be buying their gasoline elsewhere.

Cheer on midgets to the championship

The Haliburton Midgets are the only team in Haliburton County still left in the playoffs. The local midgets are now in their final series and with any kind of luck Haliburton could be in for another championship team.

The local team under the guidance of Gary McKnight and Larry Medley have made other midget hockey teams in Ontario stand up and take notice.

This club has come along way and we are all rooting for them to hit the top. There's one series left and if they can win this one then it will be time to celebrate. This final series won't be any easy one and in order for the midgets to reach the top they are asking for your support. You have given it to them in the past and you are being called on to do it just one more time. You can give them this much needed vocal support by attending all the home games in this series and by attending as many out of town games as possible.

Haliburton wants another championship hockey team and it looks as if this midget team is good enough to make this dream come true. So we say Go Midgets Go.

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor:

This is a new record for me, two letters in two papers in a row, but it seems the back-biters never stop and I have to clear the air once more. The only difference between this letter and the last is that I now have a better insight as to who you back-biters are as I am being informed by concerned members in this community. This letter is to those people.

It would seem that I missed some fantastic bake sale that we held in West Guilford last December in which we are supposed to have raised over $800 cash. This is a fact because of the different "rumours" that you heard from unknowing people. Maybe if I stop in you can fill me in more completely on the details of this "sale of the century"!

The bank account for the majorettes is in their name, not in my so-called "fat" bank account as you keep telling people. I happen to be an honest person, but I guess someone who deals solely in dishonesty and lies couldn't understand that!

I'm doing the best I can for the girls and I hold the rummage/bake sales and ticket sales to help them out. I felt very embarrassed asking for donations for the majorettes but I did it anyway to help out the girls (who is going to pay for the gas and time I put in for all these things? You?) And if you don't like the way I am running things get off your high horse and do better!

If you want to pay a licenced teacher go right ahead, I'll be the last one to stop you. Of course you know that in baton, like anything else, you're going to have to pay for that licence. Instead of my "expensive" 25c and 35c an hour you will be charged $1.25 or $1.50 for a half hour lesson. And since you say that you're speaking for other parents in this "expensive" rate, why don't you all take your daughters out?

I was good enough to teach baton to the girls before but now that competition is in the area it would seem that I should be discarded like an old rag.

I prefer to teach the way I do, as I like a "big sister" basis for a much closer relationship than a teacher child basis which is fine for others but not for me. I like to be close to the girls so I can find out their individual wants and needs and as a "big sister" I feel I can do better.

I don't tell anyone how to run their business, and I don't expect them to tell me mainly for the same reason: because we know absolutely nothing of how to run each others businesses! I admit it, why don't you?

Just because I give my babysitter and kids a ride down to the beach while I'm picking up kids for lessons is no reason to say that I take my kids everywhere with me and that I lie when I say I have to pay a babysitter. Who are you to question my actions? Mind your own business.

If someone says they can get a uniform made up using 2 yds of crimpolean, for a $1.00, then they are either a magician or a

you-know-what. I know what I'm doing with material and just because you can't see past the end of your nose don't condemn others for the lack of your knowledge. Oh, and if you can do it out of remnant pieces, fine, but don't forget al 60 uniforms have got to match!

One very important item I would like to clear up is that West Guilford girls are not I repeat, are not paying for Haliburton girls uniforms. This is a damn lie and needs to be straightened out in black and white since my verbal arguments either are not heard or knocked down behind my back. The majorettes made more in their bake sale in West Guilford, but the Haliburton businesses donated more to the girls and on the sale of ticket books it worked out to only six books difference so for the sake of a few dollars I just added them together. And if you want to go farther into this, West Guilford has 10 girls more than Haliburton so their money will not stretch as far.

There seems to be a running feud (not openly) (I think) in which some West Guilford residents are jealous of Haliburton and try to knock them every chance possible. Fine, carry on your stupid, petty differences with each other, but quit trying to involve your children in them. You're no better than anyone else so quit trying to make yourself out to be better. I think you like to see your kids carry on this stupid garbage saying "I'm better than you and so is the area I live in". Maybe you think I don't have enough to do and I need the exercise refereeing the girls when they get together. I can assure you, I don't. No group is going to perform at their best if there is constant strife among them as to who is better and who isn't.

I'd like to say that not all of these rumors are from one person, but from a few people. I also know that no matter how much I say in these letters to the Editor that the back-biters will not stop, mainly because they have nothing else to do and can find nothing better than to downtrod someone who is trying to help their community. I think they get sadistic enjoyment trying to bring the people down to their low level of life. I hope I never sink that far.

Sincerely
Mrs Victoria Packard
[Haliburton Highlands Majorettes]

This school shown above was a Union School serving the area of Lutterworth and Snowdon. It was built in 1878 very close to the site of a log school, which was in operation for some years earlier. It was known as USS No. 5 Lutterworth which was built beside the Bobcaygeon Road (now Highway 121) two miles south of Minden. The picture was taken in 1912 and the children from left to right are

RAISING CAIN

BILL SMILEY

THIS column is being written in considerable pain. It is caused by one of three things, but I haven't time to see a doctor because I have to write my column. So don't be surprised if it breaks off in the middle.

It's a sharp, biting pain in the chest. But don't worry, gentle reader. It only hurts when I cough, laugh, blow my nose or take a deep breath.

Possibly it's a heart attack, which seems to be the current fad among my peers these days. I hope it's not, because I dislike chasing after popular trends.

On the other hand, it may be an attack of pleurisy. I have a cough like a lion, and am spewing oysters into tissues, toilet paper and the snow, depending on when the fit strikes me.

A third possibility is that I twisted a muscle in my chest yesterday when I fell on a ski slope and decided to plow the last 50 yards with my nose, winding up in a contortion of limbs that would have made Houdini green with envy.

Personally, I subscribe to the third theory, mainly because it makes me seem like a clean-living chap, and secondly because I don't like the sound of the other two. Each is a bit fraught.

At any rate, this ominous — or silly — little pain OUCH! (I just sneezed) has made me give serious thought to a topic that is all the rage these days — corporal punishment in our schools.

It's almost as popular as capital punishment for criminals, and is even more widely discussed, for, while criminals make up a comparatively small segment of our society, rotten kids are always there in great numbers.

Usually, the business of beating kids is seen in black and white. On the one hand, you have the fundamentalists, who go back to the Bible with that old chestnut, "Spare the rod and spoil the child." These people forget that several of the disciples were fishermen, and that what this particular one meant was, "If you don't let the kid use your spare rod once in a while, he'll grow up to be a lousy angler."

On the other side are the other crazies: psychologists, who think a kid who is thumped will be warped for life; mothers who read articles by psychologists; and former child-beaters who are now school principals.

And in between, as usual, are all the confused, decent and sensible people like you and me and the Moderator of the United Church of Canada, who thinks the strap should be brought back.

Both the extreme camps, of course, are full of crap. In the first group, we have people who were whipped unmercifully when they were kids, and by some weird type of logic, now claim it was good for them. They can hardly wait for a chance to get their own back.

And in the second group are all the other people who were whipped unmercifully when they were kids and are trying to prove that that is what made them queer ever since.

I despise both groups, and will stick with the great mass in the middle. Most of us were whipped, at one time or another, but not unmercifully, and we deserved every stroke of the hairbrush, skelp of the yardstick, and swish of the willow-switch.

It didn't warp us, psychologically or physically. It taught us something about the society we would be living in—that there are certain limits, and if you transgress them, you take your licks.

My mother used to work over my kid brother and me about once a week, whether we needed it or not. She used a fly-swatter, which has a sting like a scorpion, or a yardstick, if we got under the bed, and the fly-swatter wouldn't reach. It did us no harm whatever, and probably saved her sanity.

The same brother and I were in the same class in school, and once a week our teacher, Old Mary Walker, would give us a good strapping, along with a buddy, G.G. Relyea. We thought the world of her. The strappings stung, but once in a while, we'd jerk back our hand and she'd hit herself a good crack on the thigh, which doubled the number on each hand but raised our status in the class.

There are only two reasons for a teacher to use a strap: 1) he or she is a poor teacher, and 2) to add a little drama to the monotony of the classroom.

A word to the bleeding-hearts. There are a lot more insidious ways to warp a child's personality than physical punishment. The real sadists of the classroom, and they are few, thank goodness, are those who use personal harassment, hectoring, and sarcasm. These can do far more permanent damage than a good thump.

Naturally, my sympathies in this affair are with the teacher. I have no time for the bully. The teacher with strength of character has few discipline problems.

But what about the sensitive young lady teacher who asks a lout to do something, and he says: "Screw you."?

So the punk gets a "suspension" for a few days (translation: holiday).

If I had the say, I'd turf him out of school for a year, and let his parents put up with him. It would serve both parties right.

This Laughing Pilgrimage

by Nila Reynolds

Here is the story of a gallant lady, Elizabeth Maude Finlay, with whom I was privileged to spend a few precious hours one cloudy afternoon in the autumn of 1973. Then close to the end of her ninety third year, the zest of living which dominated her life span, still glowed in the eyes which had watched over almost a century of our county's growth.

Independent, ambitious, of high moral principles, her values were the values which enabled the Provisional County of Haliburton to prosper and grow strong. She mentioned that she had once started an account of her life and when I expressed interest graciously offered to let me read and copy it.

It proved such an entertaining document and offered such an accurate mirror of life and social customs in pioneer Haliburton County, that I discussed with Creighton Feir its eventual publication, after suitable editing, in the Haliburton County Echo.

Where does the story of any life begin? Perhaps where it ends, in the memory of the living. It has been said that no one is ever completely dead as long as they are a coin in the treasure chest of someone's memory. Mine includes tales of a red haired great grandmother, Margaret Hume, so I shall begin with this courageous Scottish lass who at fourteen, like Shakespeare's Juliet, gave up all for love.

When her sweetheart, Robert Ritchie, decided in 1825 to leave Scotland and make his way in Canada, she left forever family, friends and beloved home to elope with him on a ship sailing for Halifax Nova Scotia. They were married by the Captain and eventually located in Ontario where they established a home at Warsaw in Peterborough County.

Her decision to elope must have been a momentous one since she was a sister of Lord George Hume and a niece of the last Earl of Hume. Lord George is said to have willed his entire fortune to her heirs in the new world since her own family had disinherited her as soon as she married without their consent.

This spirited lady was but sixteen years older than her eldest son and bore a total of fifteen children in all, one of whom was my own grandmother, my father's mother who married another Scot, Duncan Anderson, who had come to Canada as a boy, and spoke only the Gaelic until he was fourteen. He was the eldest of a family of ten children and I have the feeling his choice of Monmouth as a permanent home qualified him as the poor branch of that family since the rest achieved more distinguished careers elsewhere. The second boy was a prosperous merchant for years associated with John Northway at Tillsonburg. When they dissolved partnership my Uncle established the Anderson store in St. Thomas later managed by his son. The third son became a successful commercial traveller working in both Canada and the United States while the remaining three brothers became doctors; two sisters married ministers and a brother and sister died in childhood.

My mother, who came from Enniskillen in Northern Ireland, was educated in Dublin. Soon after her marriage she took passage with her husband on a sailing vessel outward bound for Canada. They endured a six-week ordeal by wind and water which made all the passengers deathly ill and perhaps contributed to the untimely death of her young husband the following year which left her with a recently born daughter to raise alone. Leaving the baby with her husband's relatives, she took the necessary educational courses which would make her first class teacher's certificate obtained in Dublin valid in Canada.

After five years of teaching school she married my father who always claimed "She wouldn't take no for an answer." My mother had a different version; she told me how he obtained the address of another young man she corresponded with and wrote him that he must stop corresponding with "his wife". At any rate they were living at Apsley in Peterborough County in 1880 when their marriage was blessed by my arrival in the bitter cold of that February 6th morning, perhaps prematurely since Dad said I weighed but one and a half pounds and the old mid-wife looking after mother doubted if I would ever "amount to much". Blarney from Bonny

BY BONNY REDFERN
EAGLE LAKE, ONTARIO

Market value assessment which was to become effective province wide in 1977 for the taxation year of 1978 may be accelerated in Haliburton. The Council passed a resolution requesting the Provincial Government to permit 1976 taxes to be determined on market value. I haven't seen or heard anything about this from our Council, either before or after the fact.

Each and every one of you should figure out what this will mean to you.

This news reached me on March 26. Objections had to be sent in writing to Mr. Meen, the Minister of the Ministry of Revenue (Assessment Division), 801 Bay St. Toronto by Friday, March 14. It would do no harm to send your letters now, explaining you were not informed and wished a second hearing.

Speaking of blarney, which means "persuasive talk", I understand that one of Council's main reasons for allowing the Viceroy Development in the Eagle Lake area was "to widen the tax base so that more services could be provided without raising taxes."

Persuasive talk indeed!

Mr and Mrs Syd Barnes and Timmy have gone to Toronto for a few days to visit with Syd's mother.

Quite a number of our folks from here have gone south for the school break. Mr and Mrs Hal Burton, Mr and Mrs Elgin Stouffer and family, Mr and Mrs Ron Fennel and David, Mark Fennel has gone to Ottawa to visit with his uncle. Mr and Mrs Jim Howe and family, Mr and Mrs Raymond Johnson.

Wendy Gorrie spent the break in Toronto.

Mr Tom Rogers of Sarnia, also Mr W. Harpur of Toronto visited with Mrs

Clayton Rogers on Monday.

Mr Walter Harrison is in Haliburton Hospital, where he underwent surgery. We all hope he will soon be feeling much better.

Bud Medlay is going to Owen Sound on Sunday to see his mother who is celebrating her 90th birthday.

Audrey and Harry Fountain had a lot of company over the Easter weekend. Visiting friends and relatives were Mr Joe Fountain of Toronto, Mrs Carrie Morrison, Mrs Barbara Holt and family, of Toronto, Bonnie and John Freeman of Schomberg, Linda Fountain of Peterborough, and Vicky Packard and family.

Statement by Maurice Windatt

Statement by F. Maurice Windatt who will seek the nomination for the New Democratic Party in the upcoming Provincial Election.

The Liberal Party Association for Victoria-Haliburton have held their nomination convention without saying a word about the Liberal platform. The fault is not with John Aitken, their nominee, but with Bob Nixon the Provincial leader who, by his own admission, says their platform will not be revealed before the election is called as the Tories will only pick it to pieces. If they have a viable programme why are they frightened?

Can you imagine their great concerns. Some trees were cut down in preparation for road improvement and, listen to this one, patronage.

The first I will dismiss out of hand. If paving follows in the Burnt River and Omeme are within a reasonable time where lies the fault.

As we watched a recent newscast we saw the President of the Liberal Association for Hamilton East, the riding of John Munroe M.P., say, you all know patronage has been a way of life politically as long as we can remember. Is not the pot calling the kettle black?

The NDP does not want and will not tolerate

Regional Government in the form imposed on some areas during the last number of years. We do, however, have the opportunity to restructure the County on a more efficient basis for the greater benefit of all and, apart from some additional initial expense, without increasing costs if we have the will to do so.

Our concerns should be directed to the environmental threats to the Kawartha Lakes and the Trent Valley System. If you drop a fishing line into Sturgeon Lake or Cameron Lake you will readily understand that weed growth, through pollution, is depriving our game fish of the oxygen needed to survive. A good place to make a beginning would be in the Lindsay area.

Are the Liberals and Tories concerned as to the future of our agricultural industry? Do they tell you that every three hours another farmer abandons his land? Do they tell you that 26 acres of farmland goes out of production every hour of every day? British Columbia with an NDP government is doing something about this to the satisfaction of the beef and hog raisers, fruit farmers and others, in co-operation with Provincial Farm Organizations. A Land Use Plan was established in B.C. effective January 1, 1974. This Government knows that as agricultural land is lost food production will decrease in volume with resultant price increases to the consumer. To this end a Farm Income Assurance Program is now operative involving all residents of the province, through their government, to sustain the agricultural industry and likewise to protect the interest of the consumer. Details of these plans will be made available to anyone on request.

If I am chosen as the candidate for the New Democratic Party I shall try to address myself to basic needs of people.

Gems of Truth

THE TRIUMPH OF THE CROSS

1 Corinthians Chapter 15

The early Church at Corinth had those among them that denied the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, so the servant of the risen Lord set forth the great exposition of that event in a lengthy declaration concerning the full meaning of the Cross and the Living Lord.

The believers at Corinth had been subjected to the false teaching that there is no resurrection of the dead, therefore the Lord Jehovah set forth the truth of that future day in a noteworthy manner so that all who will be instructed in His unerring Truth can easily be established in it. Jesus said "It is knowledge of the truth that makes us free". John 8:36.

The truth of the resurrection hinges upon the Lord's death on the Cross, so the chapter begins with the all embracing statement that "Christ died for our sins" verse 3 and that "He was buried and that He rose again" verse 4. The proof that He rose again is twofold; the Old Testament Scriptures, and human witnesses. Jesus referred to the former on the first eve of His resurrection as He talked with the Emmaus disciples. Luke 24:13-37. As to the human witnesses who could testify to the truth of the resurrection, Paul mentions some 514 in all. 1 Corinthians 15:5-8. Our risen Lord appeared to individual people, to groups and to above five hundred brethren at once; then last of all He appeared to Paul. Acts 9:1-15. Many of these witnesses were alive when the words were penned by Paul. 1 Corinthians 15:6.

The resurrection of the Lord Jesus is one of the best established facts of history, so there is no need of being deceived by wrangling arguments. Therefore the great Apostle of the Risen Lord's calling, goes on to show how vital this truth is. It was the sum total of Apostolic preaching and teaching. This same truth was the corner stone of Church life. Without it there is no Church. If the resurrection is denied, the very foundation of our faith crumbles, and we are virtually back where we started, the cross was of no avail, we are yet in our sins. Verse 17. Then also, those who had fallen asleep in Christ had perished, verse 18; and "if in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable". verse 19. This is the only conclusion left for a denial of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus.

The Risen Lord is the great Victor to the true people of God. Without it death has not lost its sting. verse 55. As He appeared to the disciples, their deep distress, despondency and doubt which had engulfed them at His death, was turned to hope. He was alive again! Even this fact did not give them the real joy which they experienced after He left again and the Holy Spirit began to teach them as to the true meaning of the Cross. His bodily presence was not with them very long, but when the Holy Spirit was imparted to the early witnesses of the resurrection they became triumphant, joyful and confident.

The resurrection was the great victory of the Lord Jesus over death. Jesus had said "destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up again". John 2:19. Death, the last great enemy to be destroyed, 1 Corinthians 15:26, was unable to hold Him. The glorious truth which relates itself to this fact is known only by the ones who unhesitatingly believe all that the Word of God says about it. It has far reaching effects. Death has become the gateway to the mansion prepared for saved ones. John 14:1-3.

Only a personal experience of forgiven sin, which was borne by the Lord Jesus on Calvary, can really bring rejoicing and give the assurance of Romans 8:11 where we read "But if the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwelleth in you". Sharing His victory over "sin" means we shall also share His victory over "death". Physical death may be our portion but it was "Eternal death" which was the triumph of the Cross and all truly born-again children of God will share in that triumph. 1 Corinthians 15:56-57.

Halls Lake news

School is out for some students so a lot of families have come up to enjoy the last fling of winter. The Clark's and Montgomery families enjoyed a 40-mile run on Sunday and a cook-out.

The Elgin Stouffer family are off to Florida for an Easter and school break.

Not too many turned out to Hyland Crest St. Patrick's Party, but the Residents and Auxiliary and those who did attend played euchre, checkers, cribbage, crokinole, dominoes or whatever they wished to play. A prize was given to the lucky winner of a draw for each table. Refreshments were served fairly early, prepared by Mrs Rawlins and the Auxiliary and Staff. Good music on both piano and organ by Mr Ballard was also enjoyed. Decorations were attractive. Auxiliary members assisted in the serving and announcements for prizes made by Norman Gilmore, President.

It was good to see Mr Norman Taylor, well over 80 years of age, enjoying himself at the St. Patrick's Party at Club 35 the other Saturday evening. He certainly deserves a lot of credit for keeping his youth and ability to dance and enjoy an evening out like that annual party.

The MacFarlane's of Fort Erie are staying at Sandy Lane this week and attended St. Stephen's Church on Sunday.

Some of the things we wonder about are why we must have a Postal Code, a Metric System, Daylight Saving Time, and why the Government has to change names of various departments such as the Department of Highways to Department of Transportation and Communication. Millions of dollars are spent on changing systems, machinery, letterheads, lettering on trucks, office doors, etc. Has the New Math helped? Has amalgamation of Counties helped? Have the larger schools with more bussing of children helped? All of these things are experimental and we are the guinea pigs and already we are seeing the results of some of the so-called great improvements! The $5000,000. being spent to get the "Why Not" programme off the ground is another example of wild spending. Equal pay for equal work is a good thing, but at what cost? A woman should have a share in her husband's farm if she helped to build it, or any other business which she worked years to get, but there aren't too many women today who need "liberating".

Mr Steven Koppel is busy working on "Hawk River Valley", the former Happy

Land Campsite, which is planned for only people who wish to share peaceful relaxation away from polluted and noisy city life. Mr Koppel was one of the Designers for the construction of Applewood Place, an apartment tower in Mississauga which received high praise for its many features, making it more than just an apartment building. Mr Koppel's wife and daughter are also ardent workers in their new project.

Mr and Mrs Bruce Bagshaw were guests of the Bill Lindsay's for a few days and joined in the Party at Club 35, stating what a good time they had. They have been coming to Hall's Lake for years for their vacations.

The Meeting of the Hyland Crest Auxiliary called for Monday Night was cancelled due to dangerous driving conditions. We are getting together Wednesday evening instead. The Big Fashion Show is all set for May 3rd and we trust you will all get your tickets early from the Members of the Auxiliary. The lady from the Wee Boutique is providing the clothes this year, but local models will be in action, and music will be by Mr Hart.

Have just been informed that the Stanhope Firemen are sponsoring a St. John's Ambulance First Aid Course for five weeks, starting Wednesday evening April 16 at the firehall on the North Shore Road. Men and women interested in brushing up or learning up to date techniques of first aid are welcome to join and the fee is just $12.00. The sessions commence at 7:30 and should be interesting, helpful and very worth-while. Mr Lloyd Johnson is to be the instructor.

The firemen are also sponsoring a 50-50 Draw to take place on June 30 and would appreciate your support as this is a volunteer group of men and they do have expenses to meet. They hope to have a ball again this spring or summer but the date for this will be announced later.

We wish Peter Sawyer and Irma Bock well. Both are on the sick list from this little community.
